LEAGUE MANAGERS HAVE WORDY WAR

Bresnahan Accuses Murphy of Playing Favorites and Demands That He Be Given Public Apology.

(By Evening Herald A. P. Leased Wire) St. Louis, Dec. 21.—Roger Bresnahan, manager of the St. Louis National baseball club, announced today he had preferred charges against Charles W. Murphy of the Chicago Nationals and had demanded that the national commission make Murphy apologize publicly to him. The charges, Bresnahan said, were mailed last night to Chairman Herrmann at Cincinnati.

The charges are the result of a wordy war between Bresnahan and Murphy in New York last Friday, which resulted because Bresnahan has bid on Vic Saler. Bresnahan in his charges quotes Murphy as saying that Murphy would run him out of the National league.

Bresnahan further charges that Murphy accused him of saying that he wanted Saler for the local team. He accused the local manager of working for the Toronto club.

DIVIDENDS PAID ON INSURANCE MAY BE TAXED

Commissioner of Internal Revenue Cabell Declares That Corporation Law Covers Case Fully.

(By Evening Herald A. P. Leased Wire) Washington, Dec. 21.—Commissioner of Internal Revenue Cabell today decided that the dividends paid by mutual and "participating" insurance companies to their policyholders are subject to assessment as income under the corporation tax law.

The companies contended, according to the commissioner, that these dividends were not dividends in the commercial sense but simply refunds to policyholders of an over-charge in the insurance premium.

Some of them admitted, he added, that exigencies of business and competition had resulted in the companies making "misrepresentations of facts as to dividends to their prospective purchasers of insurance."

MAYOR SHANKS DID NOT PAY BILL

It Is Alleged by Farmer That Philanthropist Who Bought Potatoes Failed to Settle for Them.

(By Evening Herald A. P. Leased Wire) Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 21.—One of Mayor Lew Shanks' "best price potato sales" was brought to the attention of the county grand jury today by Munese Brosius, a Michigan farmer, who complained that the mayor's agents had not settled with him for a carload of potatoes that he said had been engaged by the mayor's agent in his "war on the middleman." The potatoes were condemned because they were frozen.

GOVERNMENT FINDS PAPER IS FAKE

(By Evening Herald A. P. Leased Wire) Washington, Dec. 21.—Discovery by the congressional joint committee on printing that "adulterated" paper had been used for years in the government printing office, today led to the announcement of a complete new set of government paper standards. The paper adulteration was accomplished by the substitution of clay for the more substantial wood or rag fibers, leading to the grave fear that many of the printed records of the government would crumble and become unreadable in less than a century.

RUSSIAN TREATY IS OFFICIALLY DEAD

(By Evening Herald A. P. Leased Wire) Washington, Dec. 21.—With Secretary of State Knox as the only witness President Taft today signed the joint resolution passed by congress ratifying his action in serving notice on Russia of the abrogation of the treaty of 1832 with that country.

The treaty automatically will cease to be in effect until January 1, 1912. In the meantime efforts will be made to negotiate a new treaty eliminating the causes of friction which led to the termination of the old one.

The house yesterday accepted the senate resolution as a substitute for the Taft resolution, which initiated the legislation.

HEAD USHER GETS J. SAM IN BAD WITH MINISTERS

In an effort to set himself straight with the ministers of Albuquerque, J. Sam Huston the genial proprietor of the Gem theater, has been busy today extending over the telephone and in person apologies to the numerous churchmen of his acquaintance. As nearly everybody in Albuquerque knows, J. Sam had a marriage ceremony performed on the stage of the Gem last night, more than a thousand people attending. Being responsible for the approaching marriage, J. Sam found it necessary to obtain someone to marry the couple. To the head usher of the Gem he trusted the diplomatic mission.

Said J. Sam to the head usher: "Go out and get a justice of the peace and tell him to be on the job here at 8 tonight and marry Lurdie and Blythe." The head usher ushered himself out of the Gem and over to a telephone booth in a corner drug store, where to save shoe leather he proceeded to call up every minister in Albuquerque, extending an invitation to tie the knot. Looking extremely crestfallen and with his collar wilted because of long confinement in the phone booth, the head usher returned to the Gem and J. Sam.

"Nothing doing," said the usher. "I called up every minister in town and they wouldn't do it." What J. Sam said to the usher wouldn't appear well in black ink on white paper. Translated into polite King's English, J. Sam said: "I told you to get a J. P. to do the marrying. I am exceedingly sorry you caused offense to any minister by even suggesting such a thing to him." J. Sam then went over to Barcelona and secured a justice who performed the ceremony. At the Gem tonight the newly married couple will appear in a little sketch entitled, "Is Marriage a Failure?"

And in the meantime J. Sam is still explaining to the ministers.

They now have the best pictures in the city, Gem theater. Crowded like old times, Gem.

The Markets GOULD INTERESTS GIVEN HARD RAP

Drastic Liquidation in Their Issues on Street Today Cut Values Down from Two to Five Points.

(By Evening Herald A. P. Leased Wire) New York, Dec. 21.—Drastic liquidations in the Gould issues today resulted in declines of 2 to 5 points in those issues with the exception of the Wabash. The break in these securities which touched the lowest price in several years, was the important movement in the stock market during the morning. The general market showed a considerable degree of underlying strength. After some early weakness prices recovered and the brake in the Gould group failed to depress the list elsewhere, although the general market was held in check for a time. When Lehigh Valley started up strongly again the remainder of the list followed. Lehigh Valley reached 153 3/4 or three points above its early lowest and 2 1/4 points over yesterday's closing.

Bonds were firm. The market disregarded the weakness of the Gould stocks and in the noon hour a general advance was scored under the lead of Lehigh Valley. The copper shares were active and strong, Amalgamated Copper rising to the high level of the present movement. Union Pacific bore evidence of inside support as did also Steel.

Trading became more active in the later session, with further advances in practically all the prominent speculative issues. In the specialties strength was found by Great Northern Ore certificates, which gained two points. The only contrary movement was a ten-point decline in Delaware, Lackawanna and Western. The close was irregular.

LITTLE VIRGINIA CLIFFORD OF ORPHEUM RECEIVES LETTER FROM SANTA CLAUS

North Pole, Dec. 12, 1911. Dear Little Virginia:— Your letter dated December 14th asking me about Christmas presents for the little girls and boys of Albuquerque has just arrived. I am looking over my stock of Christmas gifts and find I will have more than enough to give every little girl and boy something. I will be at the Orpheum Christmas morning with a sleigh load of presents and at the Christmas matinee will give every girl and boy a nice present. Yours truly, SANTA CLAUS.

MANY LOCAL HOMES TO HAVE PIANOS

Here Are a Few of the Albuquerque Families Which Santa Is to Remember Most Splendidly.

The coming Christmas season will be marked by a new record in the number of pianos placed in Albuquerque homes. Indeed it is a fair assertion that the Leonard-Lindemann company alone will, before next Sunday, have delivered more new pianos than were ever disposed of during a similar period in the history of New Mexico.

Among those who are to have some Leonard-Lindemann instruments sent to their homes this week are William Dolde, the well known second street merchant; Policarpo Armijo, county commissioner-elect, who is to have a fine Ocellus; J. A. Heard, C. O. Clark, a popular conductor on the Santa Fe's California Limited, and many others who desire that their instruments shall come unannounced by the Santa Claus route.

For the benefit of those who have deferred piano buying from year to year, it is announced that the Leonard-Lindemann company is offering special holiday inducements which make it worth while to purchase at this time.

REV. RICHESON WILL RECOVER SOON

(By Evening Herald A. P. Leased Wire) Boston, Dec. 21.—Everything pointed today to the rapid recovery of Rev. Clarence V. T. Richeson, accused of the murder of Avis Linnell, and who so mutilated himself in his cell at the Suffolk county jail yesterday that a drastic operation was found necessary.
